COGSWELL TO PRESENT
GOLDEN GRIZZLY AWARDS
AT UM HOMECOMING

MISSOULA--

Andrew C. Cogswell, retired University of Montana dean of students, will present Golden Grizzly Den Certificates to UM graduates from the class of 1921 who will celebrate the 50th anniversary of their graduation during the 1971 Homecoming Oct. 21-23.

The certificates will be presented at the Alumni Reunion Banquet at 7:30 p.m. Friday, Oct. 22, in the Bitterroot Room of the Florence Hotel, Missoula. Other alumni celebrating commencement anniversaries at the banquet will include graduates of the classes of 1936 and 1946.

Cogswell retired in June 1970, after 39 years of service at UM. He also served as a full professor and acting dean of the School of Journalism during his long tenure on the Missoula campus.

In 1946, Cogswell was appointed director of UM's Public Service Division. During the same year he became secretary of the Alumni Association, a position he held for 10 years. While serving in the alumni post he played a major role in the establishment of the University Endowment Foundation, now known as the UM Foundation. Cogswell was dean of students from 1955 until he retired in 1970.

George Oechsli (pronounced Oxlee), executive director of the UM Alumni Association, said the response to invitations sent out for the Alumni Reunion Banquet "has been tremendous" and he expects the turnout for this year's banquet to be one of the largest ever.

The program for the banquet will include introduction of the Distinguished Service Award recipients and musical entertainment by UM students. George Caras, Missoula businessman, will be master of ceremonies.
